INTRODUCTION

This is the third in a series of publications compiled to make statistics on Alabama agriculture, originally released in many separate reports, more accessible. The February 1948 issue of Alabama Agricultural Statistics provides historic series for most of the tables in the present bulletin.

This issue presents revised estimates in a number of tables for the years 1945 through 1950 that resulted from a review and analysis of the 1950 Census of Agriculture.

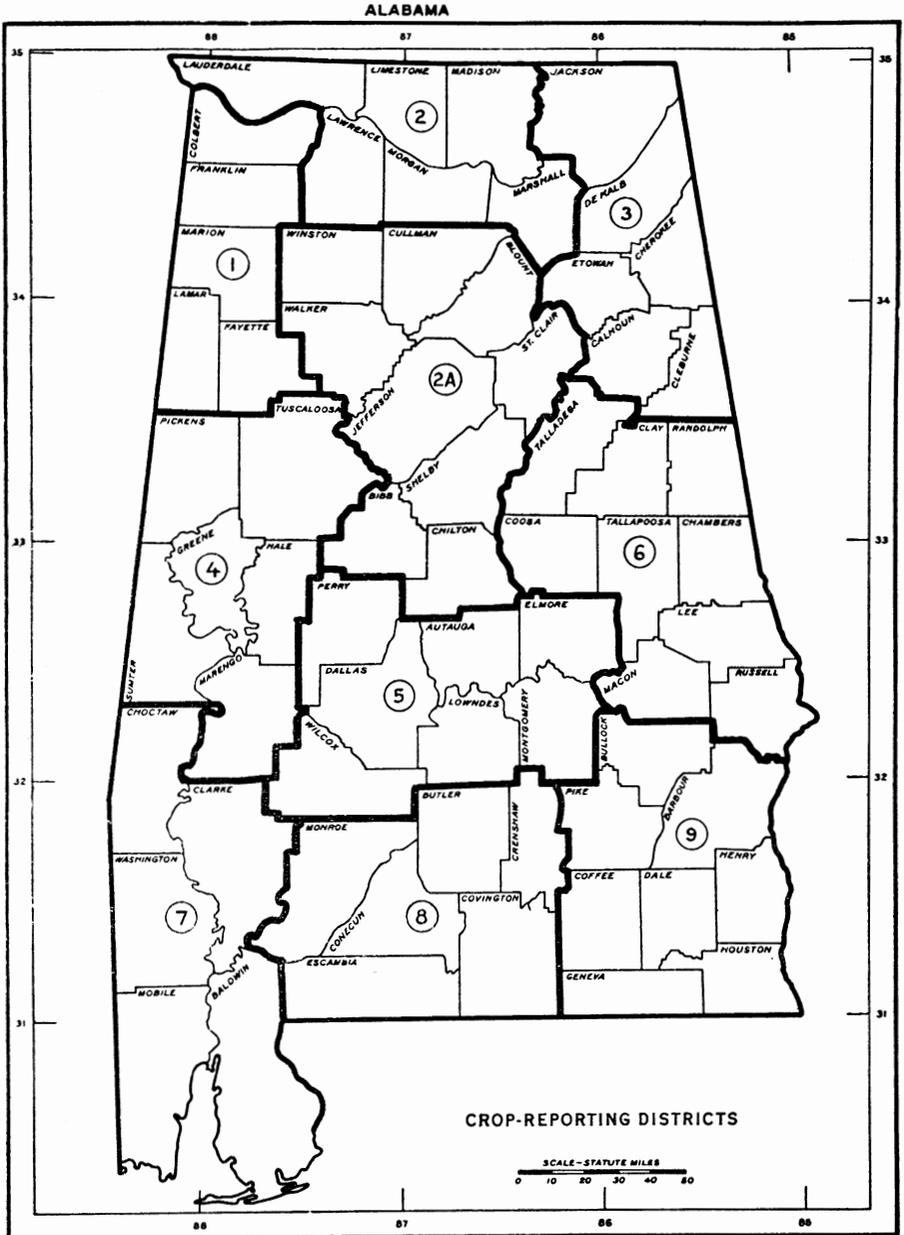

We gratefully acknowledge the generous cooperation of our many crop reporters whose voluntary services have made possible the collection of these statistics. Month after month these public-spirited citizens answer questionnaires about crops, livestock, prices, and many other related subjects. In the Montgomery office these individual reports are combined and interpreted and a state summary prepared. The Alabama summary is then sent to Washington where it is combined with data from other states to give the national picture.

The collection and publication of agricultural statistics by the United States Department of Agriculture began in 1863, the year following the organization of that department. However, as early as 1839 Congress authorized the Patent Office to spend $1,000 for the distribution of seeds and the collection of agricultural statistics.

At first the agricultural estimating work was carried on by the U. S. Department of Agriculture as a strictly Federal program. However, in 1927 formal cooperation between the Alabama and U. S. Departments was reached. This cooperation has made possible a much broader statistical program, such as the preparation of county estimates for a number of crops and kinds of livestock, data on fertilizer sales, an expanded program of poultry statistics, and the publication of this series of bulletins.

The Alabama Cooperative Crop Reporting Service publishes official estimates of crop production, prices, and other agricultural information. Anyone desiring these reports may receive them without charge by writing to J. C. Garrett, Agricultural Statistician, Post Office Box 1071, Montgomery, Alabama. The following is a list of the more important reports and the approximate dates of their release:

Reports from farmers are tabulated by counties and districts. This aids in interpreting the averages and in making calculations of the State estimates.
